Silvia Schultz

I grew up in Frankfurt/Main, Germany, where I was born in September 1968. My carrier path started in 1988 as a secretary to 2006 as a strategic human resources partner. International business experiences for the last 11 years.

I have turned away of corporate life out of respect for myself. How corporate life affected my life, amazes me if I take a look back in time. It has been my best decision taken.

- don't get me wrong. I am not saying corporate life is bad however it was simply something not fitting my personal attitude

what do I do for living first. Where do I live? In Italy, South-Piedmont. Have a look around at www.zuruecklehen.com and find out yourself.

we let people become a part of our concept ZURUECKLEHNEN

- by facilitating seminars and training sessions held indoors and outdoors.
- by providing and facilitating overnight stay - from low-budget to high extend.
- by providing real-estate services in South-Piedmont.

my philosophy

dreams can be realized, do what you intuitive think is right but never loose sight of your own personality and your goals.

my commitment

dedicated care for you as customer and guest.
